

Church Gifts and Gift Aid Declaration Form

We are grateful for all the donations we receive at St Mary's. They are vital for our survival. We do not receive payments from the Church of England to maintain the building or meet our running costs. Without donations and the labour of our volunteers, the church would close and we would lose this lovely place of sacred meaning and personal memory and a valuable community asset as well.

If you would like to make a donation by cash or cheque at the church and you pay income tax in the UK, please use one of the white Gift Aid envelopes and hand it to a church officer or insert in the donations safe on the wall by the candle stand. You may make a donation by cash or cheque without the Gift Aid declaration in the same way.

If you would like to make a single or regular gift to St Mary's Church by electronic transfer or standing order, and you pay income tax in the UK, please complete this form and hand it to a church officer or return it to:
